

Rochester Public Library Meeting Rooms Policy

During the Rochester Public Library's normal hours of operation, two meeting rooms are available for use by non-profit groups for public meetings and programs of a non-commercial nature.

The Community Room has a capacity of 61 people.
The Rose Room has a capacity of 12 people.

Rochester Public Library has first priority for use of the rooms

Rooms are made available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of the individuals requesting their use

An adult of 21 years of age must be present at all times when the rooms are being used by children under 18 years of age

All meetings shall be free of charge and open to the public; contributions may NOT be solicited

Reservations

Reservations may be made by completing a Meeting Room Reservation and Contact Information Form and submitting it at the Main Desk for approval. This must be done at least one week in advance, but no earlier than four months prior to the first meeting date. Reservation Forms are valid for one year.

Requests will usually be either confirmed or denied within 2 business days

ALL groups must reapply annually by completing a new Meeting Room Reservation and Contact Information Form

No more than four advance reservations may be made between January and December of the same year by any one group

Groups requesting to meet more than four times between January and December must do so within 30 days of the date being requested

No organization may reserve a meeting room more than once a month

The Library reserves the right to move meeting locations as necessary

The Library reserves the right to revoke meeting room privileges at any time

Meeting rooms, even when scheduled in advance, will not be available when the Library building is closed due to emergency conditions or inclement weather

When not in use, the Rose Room may be used by individuals for tutoring and studying on a walk-in basis, with a limit of one hour. These users must sign in at either the Main Desk or Reference Desk.

Rules of Use

Groups are prohibited from making statements in their publicity or signage that suggest Library sponsorship or endorsement.

All publicity must include the statement: "This event is free and open to the public."

With the exception of the Friends of the Library, no group may use the Library's address as its official address.

Meetings may begin no earlier than 9:30AM; set-up is not allowed before Library opens. Meetings should conclude 30 minutes before closing: by 8:00PM, Monday through Thursday; by 4:30 on Friday, and by 3:30 on Saturday.

Each group is responsible for setting up the room, for returning furniture to its original place, for clean-up and removal of trash from the Library, completely vacating the room 15 minutes prior to closing. Light refreshments are permitted.

On the day of the meeting each group is encouraged to hang signs on both outside doors as well as on the door of room, listing event, date, time and specific room in which the event will be held. This is so those attending the meeting/event may easily find the room.

The person who signs the Reservation Form assumes responsibility for any personal injury or property damage resulting from their use of the room, and for payment of any resulting claims.

The person who signs the Reservation Form is the only person who may make a reservation for the group.

A group that fails to comply with these regulations may be denied further use of the meeting rooms.

The Library reserves the right to alter these rules as deemed necessary by the Board of Trustees.

If the fire alarm is activated or Library staff asks your group to evacuate the room and building for any reason, you are required to comply.
